

I'm writing to urge you NOT to relax the rules on owning both a TV station and a newspaper in the same media market. Democracy depends on a free-market of ideas, a diversity of voices and opinions. Permitting the consolodation of media outlets under fewer and fewer owners reduces competition, stifles debate and undermines the democratic process.